About the Artist

Marshall White is truly a born artist with an exceptional ability to see nature in all its uniqueness, and has the God-given talent for putting his vision on canvas.

When viewing Marshall's amazing body of work, one begins to realize how extensive his creative gift is. From his stunning florals, to his authentic seascapes, and particularly his skill in depicting the Hawaiian green sea turtle, his range seems boundless. Marshall's paintings and prints of Hawaii are wonderfully detailed and popular with local art buyers and collectors who visit the islands. His sought-after art has been published on the cover of magazines, books, and in local island tourists guides.

Marshall spent many years quietly developing his craft as an artist while having a full-time career in sign design and production. He fine tuned his eye for composition during his eighteen years in the sign industry. Supervising the sign department for the Port of Seattle contributed to his competence in marketing, organization, and communication with customers and businesses alike. Most art lovers are surprised when they discover that he has had no formal art education.

Marshall made the life-changing decision to move to the Big Island of Hawaii in 2001 for the express purpose of starting his full-time career as an artist. Since 2001 he has focused on painting, reproducing and marketing his art on the Hawaiian Islands. Currently his work may be viewed in several galleries in Hawaii and in Canada, attributing to his international acclaim. He truly loves painting and it shows in his distinctive style.

Marshall is also a published author of a book titled:

"Breaking into the Art World" - How to get started making a living as an artist: Published by VirtualBookworm.com

ISBN 1-58939-762-2. $19.95. Softcover. 148 Pages. His book has helped many other artists find direction and encouragement.

"Life itself is full and rich, and I find inspiration all around me. I feel the creative energy with-in, and am moved to paint the beauty I see in creation." - Marshall White

Please enjoy this extraordinary sample of his heartfelt creations.

Comments

"I have watched Marshall's growing success first hand since he first became a "Big Islander". It's rare to find an artist who is not only incredibly talented, but also genuinely enjoys interaction with people. He is very likeable , has a gentle demeanor, and is very approachable. Marshall has also shown himself to be a man with integrity, humility, a great sense of humor, and has a zest for life. Over a few short years, Marshall has grown to become one of the most popular artists in our gallery."

"Marshall White epitomizes the best of what every artist should be. His work embodies realism with a sensitivity toward nature, his surrealism flirts with a tongue in cheek sense of humor, and his graphically stylized petroglyph figures feed playfully into the hands of collectors from every corner of the globe. He is an artistic genius and a passionate creator, which consistently makes him one of our top selling artists out of over 200 local artists that we represent. What is so amazing about his work is how diverse he is with several divergent styles. Marshall brings the Hawaiian spirit to life."

"Marshall has the ability to take the viewer of his art to a place of deep appreciation for the subject. His floral paintings reflect the purity of nature which transcend the viewer 's emotion to a place of great joy for the beauty unfolded in each petal. His ability to use different color hues to create the illusion of light and transparency allows the floral subject to appear to be living in the canvas. I believe it is this particular quality of his work that moves the viewer so deeply."
