To Beauty

Reflections of a Photographer and Improviser

To the beauty of a perfect flower.

To the beauty of a late autumn leaf, brown and dried,
its texture reflecting the sun.

To the beauty of the random but meaningful patterns
of flowing water.

To the beauty of the texture of the sidewalk,
framed by cracks, lines, paper,
mysterious black box.

To the beauty of the infinite variety of faces on the street
each face revealing/hiding
thoughts, dreams, experience.
