blurb

Day 1

Quickly Prep

Keep it simple.
Completion is the goal.

- Choose your book format
- Collect 15–20 images or pieces of content
- Pick your bookmaking tool (like BookWright)

Day 2

Set up

Use templates to reduce decision fatigue.

- Start a new project using a template
- Upload your content
- Test out layout options

Day 3

Sequence

Rough is fine—just get your structure in place.

- Outline your beginning, middle, and end
- Sequence transitional content
- Adjust and experiment as needed

Day 4

Add Text

Imperfect words now beat perfect words later.

- Write a few captions, headings, or an intro
- Keep your tone natural and consistent
- Add just enough text to support your story

Day 5

Design

Clean and consistent always wins.

- Pick a simple, clean template
- Use 1-2 fonts and 2-3 page layouts
- Let white space do the work

Day 6

Polish

Good enough is good enough.

- Flip through your book with fresh eyes
- Watch for typos, pixelation, margin issues
- Make quick fixes—but don't over-edit

Day 7

Print!

Hit publish and celebrate the win!

- Create your cover
- Double-check your preview
- Place your order and enjoy the moment
