Blue.

Blue walls, blue streets, blue steps, blue boats.

The dominant colour in Morocco is without a doubt, blue.

From the hill town of Chefchaouen, where almost every surface is painted from a wide ranging palate of blues; to the seaside town of Essaouira with it's famous fishing port and it's iconic image of blue painted rowing boats and many other fascinating towns in between, Morocco shows off it's blues.

The photographs in this book are some of my favourite blues from a trip in the Spring of 2007.
